All 6th and 7th grade science teachers taught Project Alter Curriculum.

Due to a significant budget crisis, EWCSA administrators had to layoff a significant amount of school counselors/social workers and teachers. Middle school counseling time was not fully restored as expected. With the new changes to common core and continued furlough days, it was not possible to get instruction and staff time to implement the Missing Link lessons as originally proposed so the program had to be modified from an entire grade level to a selected group of at-risk students.
